

ADELAIDE OUTREACH PROGRAMS

THEORY SEMINARS IN PSYCHOANALYSIS 2022

The Adelaide Institute of Psychoanalysis will be offering a 32 week online theoretical course in 2022 on psychoanalytic theorists and psychotherapeutic technique. The course develops incrementally.

This will provide a unique opportunity to be taught by experience international psychoanalyst from UK & Europe.

The course will examine key psychoanalytic theories, concepts and technique in detail and places these concepts in context. Readings and clinical discussions are part of the syllabus and in 2022 will encompass Ethics, Initiating therapy and Freud.

This course will be run online, weekly in the early evening, via Zoom and thus provides an exceptional opportunity to be taught by experienced international psychoanalysts from a wide range of backgrounds.

The course is suited to psychiatrists, psychologists and psychotherapists wanting to enhance their theoretical and clinical knowledge as well as skills through an increased familiarity of psychoanalytic concepts, and for those considering a future in analytic training.

Previous clinical experience would be helpful in integrating theory and practice.

COURSE DETAILS:

- ◆ Online via Zoom, Glenside Campus / Cost: $2500
- ◆ 32 week Small group theoretical seminar
- ◆ Starting : February 2022
- ◆ 1 ½ hours, weekly, after hours

FOR ENQUIRIES:

Please email: anaf@internode.on.net