

Understanding The Difficult To Reach Patient

By Pina Antinucci

CLINICAL SEMINARS

These seminars are to provide a psychoanalytic understanding for therapists working in any modality. These online clinical seminars will comprise of a detailed clinical discussion followed by a brief discussion of an allocated article. The clinical discussion requires participants to bring one verbatim session of a patient they are finding difficulty working with. The particular type of therapy that is being carried out with the patient is not the focus.

Topics covered in these seminars include, but are not limited to, the following:

- ◆ Borderline Personality Disorder
- ◆ Narcissism
- ◆ Eating Disorders
- ◆ Anxious & Depressed States
- ◆ Violence & Acting Out in Patients
